THE FURTADO CENTER – THE SEATTLE STORM'S TRAINING FACILITY

At a surprise unveiling on Feb. 23, 2001, then-Sonics and Storm team owners Barry and Ginger Ackerley announced the renaming of the Sonics & Storm training facility to "The Furtado Center." The "Voice of the Sonics" Kevin Calabro served as the master of ceremonies and read Seattle Mayor Paul Schell's proclamation of Feb. 23 as "Frank and Sarah Furtado Day."

The Furtado Center represents and honors Sarah and Frank Furtado's more than 50 combined years of dedication to the organization.

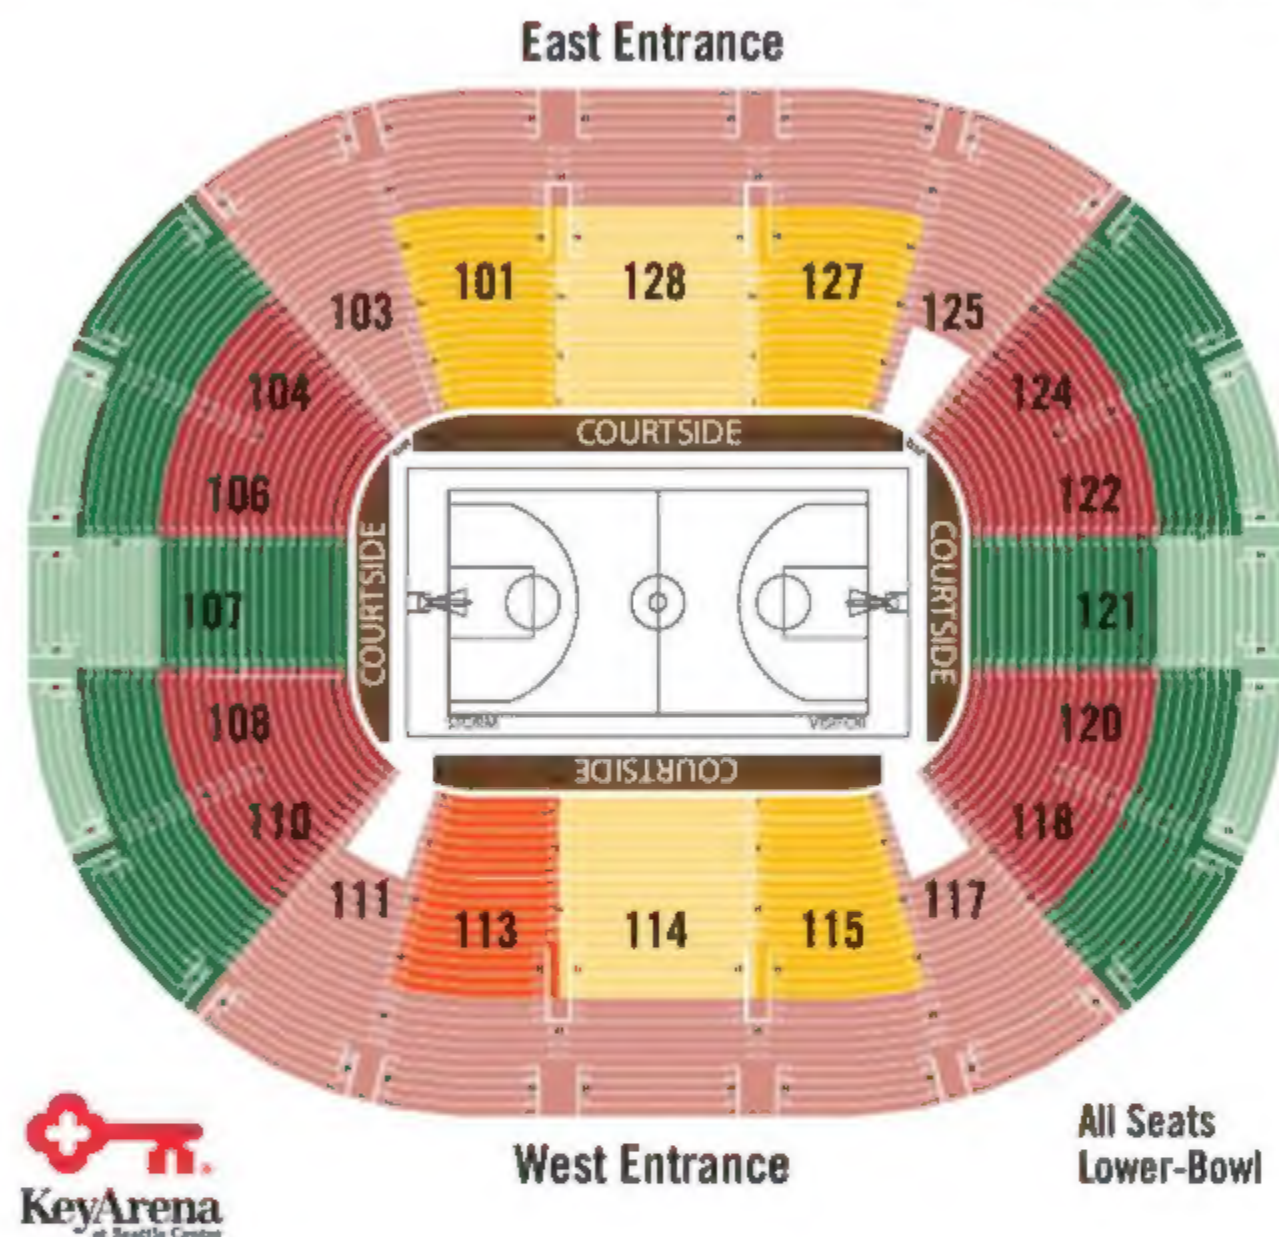

The 2009 WNBA season marked the 10th summer that the Furtado Center served as the Storm's headquarters.

The building, which opened its doors on Oct. 1, 1994, is 30,000 square feet and occupies a 2.5-acre site at 490 Fifth Ave. N. just east of Seattle Center.

The facility includes a conference room, business offices for the basketball operations staff and a second-floor balcony that overlooks the regulation NBA and WNBA basketball courts. The building also features a spacious weight training and aerobics room, physical therapy area, locker room, resistance training pool and steam room.

In addition to serving as the Storm's team headquarters, the Furtado Center hosts summer youth camps, coaches' clinics and special events.

MEDIA/WNBA INFORMATION

STORM RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

DICK FAIN

Radio Play-By-Play Announcer

Dick Fain is entering his second year as the "Voice of the Storm." Dick worked alongside David Locke and Elise Woodward and was the sideline reporter as well as fill-in play-by-play and color analyst from 2002-2006 and was part of the broadcast team during the WNBA championship run in 2004.

Dick has spent 12 years at Sports Radio 950 KJR, where he has served as show host and Sports Director. He also serves as a play-by-play voice for the Seattle University men's basketball team.

Dick graduated from the University of Washington in 1996 with a degree in broadcast journalism after attending Mount Rainier High School in Des Moines, where he continues to serve as a Varsity Boys' Basketball coach.

Dick is a lifelong resident of the Seattle area. He and his wife Janna live in the Seattle suburb of Normandy Park.

ADIA BARNES

Radio Color Analyst

Former Storm player Adia Barnes is in her third season as the color analyst. She will team with Dick Fain for every game this season on the Storm's radio partner, 1150 AM KKNW.

The seven-year WNBA veteran spent the 2002-2004 seasons in Seattle. Drafted in 1998 by the Sacramento Monarchs, Barnes played with four different teams and finished her career averaging 3.8 points and 2.6 rebounds per game.

In addition to her work for the Storm, Barnes has also appeared as a broadcaster on NBA TV.

Lacrim Jackson, See Bird, Billy Breakequa, Adia Barnes and Head Coach Anne Donovan of the Seattle Storm pose with the championship trophy during the Seattle Storm victory parade on October 15, 2004.

HISTORY: On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA.

Val Ackerman — the first president of the WNBA

Sheryl Swoopes — the first player signed to the WNBA

Cynthia Cooper — the league's first Most Valuable Player

Houston Comets — the first WNBA Champions

Lisa Leslie — the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)

Lauren Jackson – the first international player to win MYP (2007)

Candace Parker – the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)

Sylvia Fowles – the first coallending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, California. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks' guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A Growing Game: The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past twelve seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and our league reflects this trend, featuring 23 international players from 16 countries and territories at the end of the 2008 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased +277% since 1990 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 18% since 1990 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43% since 1990 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

Key Rules: Ball size: 28.5" (high school and NCAA women's)

3-point line: 20'6 1/4" (International)

Several key rule changes have been implemented over the last few seasons:

- The format of NBA games changed to four 10-minute quarters instead of the previous two 20-minute halves.
- In addition, the 24-second shot clock replaced the previous 30-second clock. It is now reset to 14 seconds when a defensive foul or other defensive violation occurs with less than 14 seconds remaining on the shot clock. It is left unchanged when a defensive violation occurs with 14 seconds or more remaining on the shot clock.
- The backcourt rule requires offensive teams to bring the ball across the mid-court line within eight seconds rather than 10 seconds.
- The timeout rule requires officials to grant requests for a timeout (full or 20-second) by a player in the game or the head coach. Previously, only players in the game were allowed to call timeouts.
- Team rosters now consist of 11 players.

All-Star Game: The 2009 WNBA All-Star Game will be held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, CT on Saturday, July 25. ABC will televise the game which tips off at 3:30 p.m. ET.

In 2008, the WNBA did not hold an All-Star Game due to the month-long, mid-season break for Summer Olympics. The league did, however, conduct its annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon in San Francisco on July 30. The luncheon, at which noted TV journalist Robin Roberts received the Inspiring Woman Award, also served as a send off for the U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball team. While the entire 12-member U.S. team was comprised of WNBA players, a total of 39 current and former WNBA players dotted the rosters of 10 of the 12 countries participating in the Olympics.

The 2007 WNBA All-Star Game, the league's eighth such contest, was played in front of a sellout audience on July 15 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C. A crowd of 19,487 fans witnessed the East defeat the West, 103-99 as Cheryl Ford of the Detroit Shock clinched the MVP honors. A key highlight of the All-Star festivities in 2007 was the second annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon, featuring keynote speaker and Secretary of State Dr. Condoleezza Rice.

Inspiring Women: The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family and community. Past honorees include Good Morning America's Robin Roberts, former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice and the WNBA All-Decade Team.

Marketing: The WNBA has garnered unprecedented marketing support for a women's professional sport, and enjoys long-standing partnerships with major national and international brands such as adidas, Discover Card, Gatorade, Nike, and T-Mobile. New partners in 2008 included such major companies as McDonald's, Kia Motors, HDP, Pitney Bowes and HP. Starwood Hotels and Resorts was announced as a partner in 2009.

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fan base of women, families and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally-televised games, national promotions, player endorsements and special events.

Through the WNBA's extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas, the sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 – but also as the presenter of the 2007, 2008 and 2009 WNBA Drafts and in 2008 became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the Playoffs and Finals.

The 2008 season also featured the first WNBA marketing partnership in China with Peak, China's number one domestic basketball footwear brand, following the announcement in February.

Attendance/TV Ratings: Fueled by incoming stars Candace Parker, Sylvia Fowles and Candice Wiggins, the 2008 Draft, the most anticipated in WNBA history, drew significantly higher TV and
